

Delivery & Payment Policy

Payment Terms

Payment for individuals undertaking training with Remote Industrial Training Services (RITS) is required to be paid upfront at time of booking.

Group booking payment terms for training are based on agreement between the client and Remote Industrial Training Services.

Payment for all other products and services are Cash on Delivery (COD) unless the client has negotiated alternative payment terms with RITS prior to invoicing.

Delivery Terms

Upon receipt of payment for training courses that the student is enrolled in, the student will receive an email confirming the times and dates for the course, as well as any information about what students need to bring with them to training, and any work that must be completed prior to attending in person training.

Delivery and Payment Policy Enquiries

If you have any queries about our Delivery and Payment Policy please contact us at:

PO Box 432, Beverley WA 6304

admin@remoteindustrial.com.au

0429 883 842